Romans 2:5-11

God's Judgment is Impartial

Fairness

God's wrath IS coming 5
(Judges 2:19; Isaiah 46:12; Jeremiah 5:23; Psalm 73:7;
Isaiah 6:10; Acts 7:51; Mark 3:5; Romans 1:18)

Everyone gets theirs 6
(Jeremiah 17:10; Matthew 16:24-27; John 5:28-29;
1 Corinthians 3:11-15; 2 Corinthians 5:10)

Two groups of people 7-10

Those who do good 7
(Romans 8:17-21; 2 Corinthians 3:18; 4:17; John 12:26;
Matthew 25:21; 1 Corinthians 15:53-54; Romans 3:10-12,
Romans 3:23)

Those who do evil 8
(Proverbs 28:13; John 3:36)

The fate of those who do evil 9
(Romans 1:16)

The fate of those who do good 10

God has no favorites 11

Where do you stand?
(Revelation 20:11-15)

Questions for discussion

1. Why do we get upset when something is unfair? Give an illustration of something that you believe was not fair.
2. In the context of Romans 2, why do you believe that it is important that God is an impartial judge?
3. Three times already in the first chapter and a half of Romans, Paul wrote, “to the Jew first, then to the gentile.” Why do you think this is so important?
4. What group or groups do you think feel favored by God today? Is it possible that some Christians feel this way?
5. What would you say to one of these Christians who felt that they were “God’s favorite” so they can “get away” with sin?
6. Who can you tell about the Lord this week?
