Questions for Discussion or Personal Contemplation:

- Can you think of something that God created for good, that the world has spoiled and used for evil?
- How many messages do you think you have heard in church in your lifetime about sex? How many of them were negative and how many of them were positive?
- What practical things can a person do (or refrain from doing) to cultivate a Biblical, God-honoring sex life in the midst of a pagan, sexually-charged culture?
- Why do you think the father painted such a terrible picture of the consequences of embracing the adulterous woman?
- If you could go back and tell your younger self something that would help you make different choices, what would it be? (Or, what do you wish someone would have told you when you were younger?)
- What might Psalm 119:9-16 have to do with following wisdom and today's passage in Proverbs 5?
