Concluding Statements

1. The same God of the universe who made provision and protection for the nation of Israel is the same God that we serve today. He is always faithful!
2. While God was always faithful to the children of Israel, they were not always faithful to Him. This challenges us to be faithful to Him.
3. God demonstrates His greatness and absolute power over the universe for the praise of His glory.

Questions for discussion

1. What are your thoughts about God when you consider the events presented in this psalm? How does this encourage you in your walk with the Lord?
2. What events would you discuss if you were writing a psalm about your own life of how God has protected and provided for you? Share your psalm with another believer. How might you use your psalm in sharing the Lord with someone who does not know Christ?
