

Proverbs 3:1-12

This is a “My Son” poem where the father gives six admonitions to the son as well as rewards that come for the son’s obedience.

1. To obey the father’s teaching 3:1-2

1). The admonition itself 3:1

2). The rewards for obedience 3:2

2. To love and faithfulness 3:3-4

1). The admonition itself 3:3

2). The rewards for obedience 3:4

3. To trust God 3:5-6

1). The admonition itself 3:5-6a

2). The rewards for obedience 3:6b

Questions for discussion

1. The children of Israel were told not to forget God when they went into the Promised Land (Deut. 8:11-20). Give some examples of how we can forget God today. What is the solution to forgetting God?
2. How can faithful love (3:3) become such a blessing in our relationships with others? How does the manifestation of faithful love help us to win favor and a good name with God and man? (3:4)
3. How can trusting in the Lord as described in Proverbs 3:5-6 get us through this time of trouble with the coronavirus and economic uncertainty? How do you plan on dealing with it? What advice can you give to others? How can you use this situation to glorify the Lord?